The Town of Ansted called an emergency meeting on August 27, 2020 because the New Haven Foundation agreed to pave the parking lot in front of the medical clinic on the corner of Florence Street and Cemetery Street, which is owned by the Town, on the stipulation of they would pay half and the Town would pay half. The Town's portion would be $2,000.⁰⁰.

The Mayor called the meeting to order at 1:08 PM and was held via telephone conference and those present were Mayor Kalispel Holcomb, Recorder Siobhan Wilson, and Councilmembers Johnny Osborne, Kathi Miller, Larry Grose, and Herb Hayes. Wayne Hogg was absent.

Councilman Larry Grose made a motion to accept the offer of going halves with the New Haven Foundation and paving the parking lot for $2,000. Kathi Miller seconded the motion and the motion passed unanimously.

Meeting was adjourned with no further business to conduct.
